

- Description: Focused on techniques for effectively engaging communities in health promotion initiatives, this training explores strategies for building partnerships and mobilizing resources.
- Training Requirements:
  - Hours: 3 hours
  - Prerequisites: None
  - Field Supervision: None required
  - Materials: Guidelines on community engagement and resource mapping.
  - Textbook: "Community Engagement: A Handbook for Practitioners" (Current Cost: $35.00)
- Cost:
  - Individual Rate: $75 (with textbook: $110.00)
  - Group Rate (5 or more): $60 per participant (with textbook: $95.00)

7. Emergency Preparedness and Community Response

- Description: This workshop discusses strategies for community health emergency preparedness and response, equipping participants with the skills to respond effectively to health crises.
- Training Requirements:
  - Hours: 3 hours
  - Prerequisites: None
  - Field Supervision: None required
  - Materials: Emergency response plans and resource lists.
  - Textbook: "Emergency Preparedness and Response: A Community Perspective" (Current Cost: $45.00)
- Cost:
  - Individual Rate: $75 (with textbook: $120.00)
  - Group Rate (5 or more): $60 per participant (with textbook: $105.00)

8. Data-Driven Approaches to Community Health

- Description: This training prepares participants to utilize data effectively in developing and evaluating community health initiatives, emphasizing evidence-based approaches.
- Training Requirements:
  - Hours: 5 hours
  - Prerequisites: None
  - Field Supervision: None required
  - Materials: Data collection templates and evaluation frameworks.
  - Textbook: "Data-Driven Decision Making for Public Health" (Current Cost: $60.00)
- Cost: