

health, equipping participants to foster healthier environments and promote wellness initiatives. Through certification programs and CEU opportunities, these trainings enhance expertise and promote ongoing professional development in community health endeavors.

Here's a comprehensive description and overview for each of the specified Prevention Trainings workshops offered by Amitie LLC. Each training is designed to be 1-3 hours long, equipping participants with strategies and knowledge to promote health and prevent various issues in community settings.

1. Preventing Substance Use in Communities

- Description: This training workshop focuses on developing strategies for raising community awareness about substance use and implementing effective prevention education programs. Participants will explore the root causes of substance use and learn actionable techniques to engage the community in prevention efforts.
- Focus: Strategies for community awareness and prevention education.
- Duration: 2 hours
- Target Audience: Community health workers, educators, parents, and local leaders.
- Cost: $75

2. Suicide Prevention Training

- Description: This workshop teaches participants how to recognize the signs of suicidal ideation and implement effective prevention strategies. It provides practical tools for engaging with individuals in crisis and connecting them to appropriate resources.
- Focus: Recognizing signs and implementing prevention strategies.
- Duration: 3 hours
- Target Audience: Mental health professionals, educators, first responders, and community leaders.
- Cost: $100

3. Understanding and Preventing Domestic Violence

- Description: This training educates participants about the signs of domestic violence, its impact on individuals and families, and ways to respond effectively. Participants will learn about prevention strategies and how to create supportive environments for victims.
- Focus: Education on prevention and response to domestic violence.
- Duration: 3 hours
- Target Audience: Social service providers, law enforcement, educators, and community advocates.
- Cost: $100

4. Youth Engagement in Prevention Programs

- Description: Focuses on techniques for engaging youth in prevention initiatives, this workshop equips participants with skills to create programs that resonate with young people, empowering them to be active participants in promoting health.
- Focus: Techniques for involving youth in prevention initiatives.
- Duration: 2 hours
- Target Audience: Youth workers, educators, and program coordinators.