

- Description: This training focuses on effective crisis prevention and management strategies specifically for recovery residences and non-residential recovery programs.
- Training Requirements:
  - Hours: 3 hours
  - Prerequisites: None
  - Field Supervision: None required
  - Materials: Crisis management resources and intervention protocols.
  - Textbook: "Crisis Intervention Strategies " (Current Cost: $61.00)
- Cost:
  - Individual Rate: $75 (with textbook: $136.00)
  - Group Rate (5 or more): $60 per participant (with textbook: $121.00)

7. Building Community Support for Recovery

- Description: This training emphasizes the importance of community involvement in the recovery process, training participants in strategies to mobilize community resources and build networks that support recovery.
- Training Requirements:
  - Hours: 4 hours
  - Prerequisites: None
  - Field Supervision: None required
  - Materials: Community engagement tools and resource directories.
  - Textbook: "Community Engagement in Mental Health: A Guide for Providers " (Current Cost: $40.00)
- Cost:
  - Individual Rate: $100 (with textbook: $140.00)
  - Group Rate (5 or more): $80 per participant (with textbook: $120.00)

Summary

The Recovery Residence/Non-Residence trainings offered by Amitie LLC provide valuable knowledge and skills necessary for successful recovery support services. Each program is designed to cover essential topics while accommodating different learning styles and professional needs, from foundational skills to specialized strategies for dealing with co-occurring disorders. These programs not only enhance the skills of those working in recovery but also support better outcomes for individuals seeking assistance, thereby fostering healthier communities.

Description of Administrator/Supervision Training Programs

The Administrator/Supervision Training Programs offered by Amitie LLC are designed to equip leaders in behavioral health and community services with the essential skills needed to effectively manage teams, implement programs, and oversee operations within a trauma-informed framework. These programs emphasize the importance of supportive leadership in fostering positive organizational culture,